

Construction has begun on the club house for the West End Racing Club - 83 Commercial Street
1950's

Getting ready to raise the roof of the West End Racing Club

Roof rafters in place on the West End Racing Club - 1950's

Roof construction on the West End Racing Club - 1950's

West End Racing Club under construction - 1950's windows are in, roof is on

West End Racing Club - 83 Commercial Street
construction is nearly finished - 1950's

Carpenter working on beach stairs at the West End Racing Club - 1950's

West End Racing Club - railing for beach stairs

Richard ('Honka') Santos working on beach stairs
West End Racing Club - 1950's

West End Racing Club - 1950's
Painters sealing the deck timbers
Hans Hoffman house in the background

West End Racing Club under construction - 1950's
View out the second story door and window
Deck is not yet in place

West End Racing Club - first season at 87 Commercial Street

West End Racing Club - 1950's
Construction nearly finished

Dedication of the West End Racing Club

Cheryl Santos raising the flag Larry Richmond and Cheryl's father, Richard Santos, talking to one another
West End Cold Storage wharf in background

Richard Santos (left) and Larry Richmond (half way out the window) hanging the shutters

Kids sitting in the east side doorway at the West End Racing Club

Richard Santos (beach counselor and high school science teacher) in the club skiff getting ready to take kids out to boats on moorings

Single-handed skipper heading into the beach

West End Racing Club - Weasel races - 1950's

WERC Weasel Races - 1950's

WERC Weasel Fleet - 1950's

West End Racing Club Weasel fleet race

Center rear - skow with poles for repairing the weir traps

Right rear - fishing dragger and two 210's - doubled-ended racing sloops owned and raced by Larry Richmond and William Hurlbert

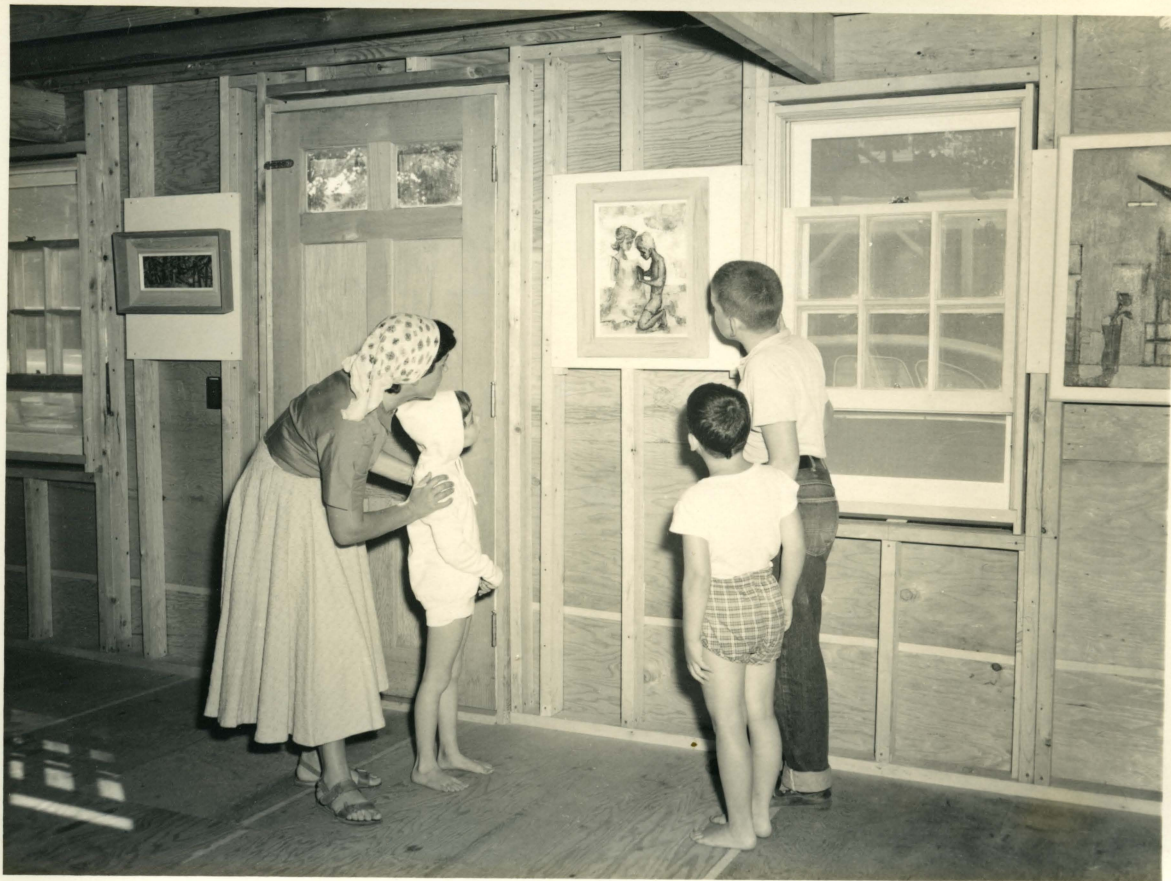

West End Racing Club Weasel fleet races - 1950's

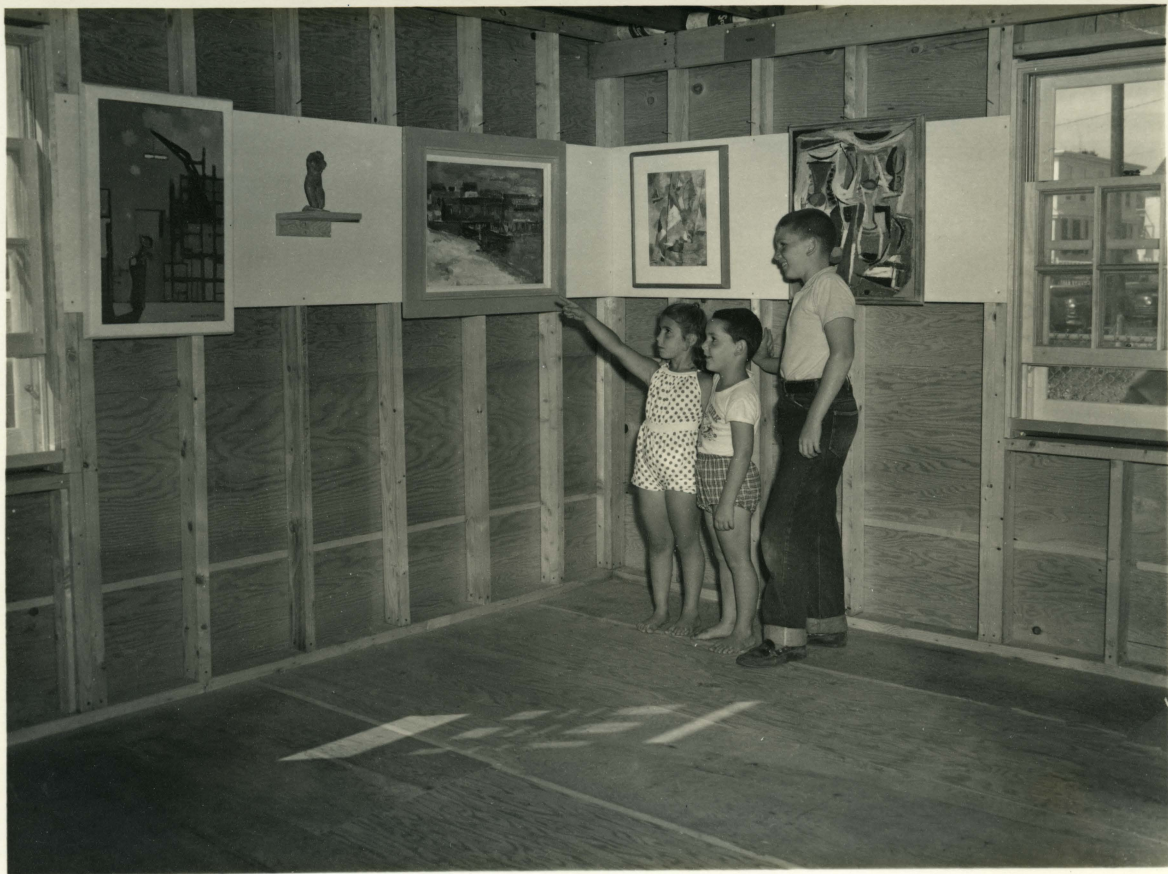

West End Racing Club weasels sailing into the beach - Capt. Jack's Wharf in background

West End Racing Club Weasel fleet in the 1950's - built by fathers of club members - very stable flat-bottomed, gaff-rigged, center board sailboat

Children viewing donated paintings to be raffled off to benefit the West End Racing Club

West End Racing Club end of the season art raffle Provincetown artists generously donated works and the children sold raffle tickets to help pay for the club's seasonal expenses

End of the season buffet dinner and awards ceremony

Trophies awarded to West End Racing Club winning members at the end of the season